International Society for Neurodegenerative Diseases

ISND 7th Annual Meeting

The International Society for Neurodegenerative Diseases (ISND) is hosting its FREE 7th Annual Meeting on September 8 and September 9, 2023, online over Zoom! The ISND is a consortium of students, working professionals, and leading scientists and clinicians across the world, dedicated to educating about and raising awareness of innovation in the field of neurodegenerative diseases.

This year, join us to learn from preeminent authorities in science and law about the current forefront of INNOVATION – FROM LAB TO COURTROOM.

Attendance is FREE! To register and for more information about the 7th Annual Meeting, please scan the QR code in our flyers or visit <https://isndannualmeeting.eventbrite.com>. For more information about ISND, please visit <https://www.theisnd.org/>. For any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at contact.isnd@gmail.com.

Our internationally renowned speakers include:

- Dr. Guy Brown, PhD, Professor of Cellular Biochemistry at the University of Cambridge, U.K., and an internationally renowned expert and author of several books in neuroinflammation and neurodegeneration
 - “Microglial phagocytosis of neurons and synapses contributes to neurodegeneration”
- Dr. Don Cleveland, PhD, Department Chair of Cellular and Molecular Medicine at the University of California at San Diego, U.S.A., and a recipient of the $3 million Breakthrough Prize, the world’s largest science prize
 - “Development of designer DNA drugs for neurodegenerative disease”
- Dr. Valina Dawson, PhD, Professor of Neurology, Neuroscience, Physiology and Director of Neuroregeneration and Stem Cell Programs at Johns Hopkins University, U.S.A., and a Thomson Reuters World’s Most Influential Minds Honoree
 - Opening Remarks

- Dr. Anthony Lang, MD, Professor and Jack Clark Chair for Parkinson’s Disease Research at the University of Toronto, Canada, and the world’s most cited Parkinson’s disease investigator for a decade
 - Opening Remarks
- Dr. Peter Marks, MD, PhD, Director of the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research (CBER) at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, U.S.A.
 - “FDA’s efforts to facilitate the development of biologic products for neurologic diseases”
- Dr. Paula Moreira, PhD, Professor of Physiology at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Coimbra, Portugal, and a World’s Top 2% Scientists List Honoree
 - “The key role of mitochondria in Alzheimer’s disease”
- Dr. Kazutoshi Mori, PhD, Professor of Biophysics at the Graduate School of Science, Kyoto University, Japan, and a recipient of the Lasker Award and the $3 million Breakthrough Prize, the world’s largest science prize
 - “Dynamics of Function and Regulation of the Endoplasmic Reticulum (ER): Main Focus on Seipinopathy, an ER Stress-Associated Motor Neuron Disease”
- Honorable Judge George H. Wu, JD, a sitting federal judge of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, U.S.A.
 - “Patentability Limitations in the United States, including Life Sciences/Biotech Considerations”
